1. Course Description:

This course teaches practice models and multi-level methods of intervention for effective social work practice in health care, including health promotion, disease prevention, assessment, treatment, rehabilitation, continuing care, and discharge planning. Examples of topics covered include the use of the current ICD system in assessment, screening and early intervention, workplace health promotion, crisis intervention, intervention in major catastrophic or chronic diseases such as cancer, cardiovascular disease, HIV/AIDS, and depression; promotion of optimal adaptation to chronic illness through interpersonal, organizational, and environmental interventions; self-help and mutual aid, rehabilitation and continuing care, supporting caregivers and integrative and complementary interventions. Selected issues and methods in supervision and management are addressed, such as individual, peer and workgroup models on practice. The impact of differences in ability, age, class, color, culture, ethnicity, family structure, gender (including gender identity and gender expression) marital status, national origin, race, religion or spirituality, sex, and sexual orientation will be examined, as these relate to various health practices, policies and services.

2. Course Content:

This course will provide students with models and methods for positive health promotion, prevention of disease, the provision of comprehensive and effective treatment when illness occurs, and for promotion of rehabilitation and optimal adaptation to chronic illness. Assessment, prevention and intervention strategies for use in health care social work practice at the individual, family, group, community and organizational levels will be addressed. Students will learn how to assess, plan, develop, and evaluate appropriate evidence-based interventions and how to use selected supervisory and managerial strategies to enhance positive outcomes for consumers. A major focus of this course will examining the various diversity dimensions (ability, age, class, color, culture, ethnicity, family structure, gender (including gender identity and gender expression) marital status, national origin, race, religion or spirituality, sex, and sexual orientation) as it relates to access to care, appropriateness of services and emerging prevention, intervention and rehabilitation interventions.

3. Course Objectives:

The objectives for this course are outlined below along with corresponding CSWE Practice Behaviors. You will be provided with a copy of the CSWE Competencies and Practice Behaviors during our first class together and I will reference this throughout the semester to help highlight the intersection between what we are covering and the practice behaviors you are learning.

Students who complete this course will be able to:

2. Participate as an interdisciplinary team member; engage in case advocacy and coordination and in case conferencing and collaboration. (Practice Behaviors 10.a.IP, 10.a.CO, 10.a.SPE, 10.a.MHS)
3. Assess and conduct psychosocial health risk/strengths assessments of individuals, families, groups or communities along a continuum of care. (Practice Behaviors 10.b.IP, 10.b.CO, 10.b.SPE, 10.b.MHS)
4. Demonstrate understanding of the current ICD system assessment process. (Practice Behaviors 10.b.IP, 10.b.CO, 10.b.SPE, 10.b.MHS)
5. Plan, implement and evaluate culturally and gender sensitive individual, family, group, community and organizational interventions focused on prevention, treatment and/or rehabilitation. (Practice Behaviors 10.c.IP, 10.c.CO, 10.c.SPE, 10.c.MHS, 10.d.IP, 10.d.CO, 10.d.SPE, 10.d.MHS)
6. Apply knowledge of selected managerial practices to issues of supervision, staff development, and administration in health care social work practice. (Practice Behaviors 10.c.IP, 10.c.CO, 10.c.SPE, 10.c.MHS)

7. Build partnerships with key health constituencies for the purposes of health promotion, disease prevention and elimination of health disparities. (Practice Behaviors 10.a.IP, 10.a.CO, 10.a.SPE, 10.a.MHS)

8. Examine the impact of differences in ability, age, class, color, culture, ethnicity, family structure, gender (including gender identity and gender expression) marital status, national origin, race, religion or spirituality, sex, and sexual orientation as these relate to various health practices, policies and services. (Practice Behaviors 10.a.IP, 10.a.CO, 10.a.SPE, 10.a.MHS, 10.b.IP, 10.b.CO, 10.b.SPE, 10.b.MHS)

9. Incorporate social work values and ethical principles in planning, developing and implementing health care social work interventions. (Practice Behaviors 10.c.IP, 10.c.CO, 10.c.SPE, 10.c.MHS)

4. Course Design:

The course will include lectures, student led discussions, small group exercises, individual and group projects, written assignments and guest speakers. This class is designed to be highly interactive and I strive to pull in examples from my clinical and management experiences to highlight how the information we are covering can be applied within your filed placement and future career.

5. Relationship of the Course to Four Curricular Themes:

Multiculturalism and Social Diversity is addressed throughout the course and is highlighted in content and discussions of various health practices, policies and services related to the key diversity dimensions.

Social Justice and Social Change is a central theme in the course, especially in discussions of health disparities and access to care issues that are discussed across the continuum of health care services from promotion/prevention to rehabilitation/continuing care.

Behavioral and Social Science Research is presented throughout the course and includes findings from evaluation, prevention and intervention research in social work, medicine, nursing, public health, and health services research as well as health psychology, medical sociology, medical anthropology, health economics, and political science.

Promotion, Prevention, Treatment and Rehabilitation is examined through content and exercises that focus on the methods and models of intervention for health promotion, disease prevention, treatment and rehabilitation in major catastrophic or chronic diseases and promotion of optimal adaptation to chronic illness.
6. Relationship to Social Work Ethics and Values:

This course will emphasize working on behalf of the most disadvantaged persons and groups at greatest risk of various negative health outcomes. Special emphasis will be placed on advocacy and environmental modifications. Issues related to specific health practices, managed care, client self-determination, confidentiality, dignity, HIPPA, and associated legal, ethical, and value concerns will also be addressed.

This course integrates PODS content and skills with a special emphasis on the identification of theories, practice, and/or policies that promote social justice, illuminate social injustices and are consistent with scientific and professional knowledge. Through the use of a variety of instructional methods, this course will support students developing a vision of social justice, learn to recognize and reduce mechanisms that support oppression and injustice, work toward social justice processes, apply intersectionality and intercultural frameworks and strengthen critical consciousness, self knowledge and self awareness to facilitate PODS learning.

1. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Participation & Attendance

Classroom participation is a significant part of the learning experience. All students are expected to participate in classroom activities and discussions. Classroom participation will be incorporated into the grading system (see below for details). Regular attendance and active participation in pre-assigned small group role plays and/or discussions is expected. If you are unable to make a class please notify me by email prior to the class. If the class you will be missing happens to fall on a day when you are assigned a role play or discussion leads it is your responsibility to identify a classmate who can/will switch with you and to inform me in the email of who that person is.

Regardless of what direction in the field your career takes you, it is imperative that you have strong communication skills and the ability to engage others in thoughtful dialogue. Therefore, I have assigned each of you an opportunity to practice this skill either as a discussion leader or a role play participant and I hope you will put forth as much effort as you can muster in these roles. To assist with discussion leads, I have identified the first “prompting” dialogue question for the session and I anticipate that you will have two or three other prompting questions. We will begin each class with 10 – 15 minutes of reflection and interactive discussion of the assigned novel led by you.

Missing more than two classes, with out extenuating circumstances, will result in your grade being lowered by one half grade.
Assignments: All assignments except for the final group project are submitted into the CANVASS site. Late assignments are not accepted nor are assignments by email. All assignments are due before the start of class.

The semester grade will be based on the average of all numerical grades, based on the following weighting:

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

1) Culturally Competent Social Worker Self-Assessment (3 points)

2) Video Role Play #1: Screening for domestic violence, what to look for, what to ask and screening for lethality (5 points)
