1. COURSE STATEMENT

Course Description
This foundation course for the Community Action and Social Change Minor is designed to prepare students to be informed and active participants in the process of community building and social change. The course uses a multidisciplinary framework to develop competencies that will help students envision what community action and social change look like, identify and implement steps towards social change, build on positive sources of power, indigenous knowledge and experiences of individuals, groups, and communities who are engaged in social change efforts.

Supporting Statement for Social Science Distribution
This course meets the requirements for LS&A social science distribution in the following ways. The course material covers theories and practices of community action and social change through an interdisciplinary examination of examples in research and practice. The course focuses on individuals, groups and institutions and how they interact. The course examines empirical quantitative and qualitative studies that test social change methods and provides exposure to and experience with qualitative research methods such as ethnographic observation and interviewing and qualitative data-gathering. Students are engaged in a critical and contrasting assessment of community organizing and other social change methods.

Course Competencies

Praxis: “Reflection and action upon the world in order to transform it.”
- Paulo Freire, The Pedagogy of the Oppressed

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Examine their own identity development (race, class, gender, sexual/relation orientation, religion, nationality, ability, other), recognize multiple social identities, and engage in critical analysis of power, privilege and oppression.
2. Explore the meaning of community and social change.
3. Develop skills in interviewing, relationship-building, and group facilitation.
4. Gain awareness of historical framework and theory regarding community action and social change.
5. Engage in policy and structural analysis with regard to community action and social change.
6. Develop an understanding of community-building and organizing skills.
Course Design
This course uses an engaged learning approach and employs a number of pedagogical strategies to promote knowledge and skill development.

Most classes will be structured to include a lecture or presentation, accompanied by a discussion or activity period. We will employ a number of pedagogical strategies such as: small group work, class discussions, PowerPoint, experiential exercises, audiovisuals, writing exercises, case examples, and other activities in order to facilitate understanding of the course content and to promote knowledge development.

Total Possible Points

The class requires a set of assignments aimed at:

1. Gaining critical awareness about one’s self as a community change agent both inside and outside the classroom
2. Building knowledge about core concepts, historical frameworks, and key people,
3. Developing and engaging with peers in critical discussion of key ideas and issues, and
4. Applying the lessons and learning to one’s current interest and future work.

My practice is to provide detailed feedback on your papers. As such, it may take me up to three weeks to return them.

Papers are graded on:

- Quality of clinical thinking: Papers that rate the highest will show strong analytic skills; evidence strong clinical insight; show strong understanding of human behavior; demonstrate a curiosity about what they hear or see; have a level of empathy for others and know when they are struggling to achieve that; and demonstrate an ability to think about what they heard, as well as what they did not hear.
- Integration of materials: Papers that rate the highest will show superior skill in linking reading and lecture materials to their written work; pull from multiple sources; typically go above the requirements but not excessively so; go beyond “person on the street” thinking.
- Level of Self-reflection: Papers that rate the highest will show a strong self-awareness or willingness to develop that capacity; they show a willingness to take risks with thinking or note areas where that is difficult; are able to address what is evoked in them response to the work and demonstrate an understanding of social work values and ethics.
- Writing skills: Papers that rate the highest will have no typographical or grammatical errors. They will be well organized and written, comprehensive and coherent. They will be within the guidelines, neither excessively short nor excessively long. Any citations will be accurate and there will be effective use of quotations.

References and Referencing Style
When using others’ work, it is mandatory to cite the original source. Social work publications generally follow the referencing format specified by the American Psychological Association (APA); therefore you are expected to follow this...

Intellectual Honesty and Plagiarism
It is your responsibility to be familiar with and abide by the University of Michigan’s Academic Integrity Standards (https://lsa.umich.edu/lsa/academics/academic-integrity/academic-misconduct.html). Plagiarism is when you attribute others’ ideas and/or exact words as your own. This includes ideas and/or passages from the readings, class activities, peers, and from the Internet, among others. I expect that all sources used will be cited or referenced. If I suspect plagiarism, I will follow the University’s protocol for disciplinary action. This could mean a loss of points, failure of a grade, and/or other consequences. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

Attendance & Participation
As an advanced practice course, it is important that you attend each class session. The class sessions involve skill development experiences that go beyond course readings/learning tasks. Missing class sessions will lower your grade since your participation as a co-learner is essential to meet the learning goals for this requirement. If you are not able to attend a particular class session, please notify the instructor prior to the class session so that arrangements can be made for you to address the material that you missed.

Your attendance and participation also reflects the basic elements of any social work relationship – you show up and remain present. If, for any reason, I have concerns about your participation or attendance, I will discuss my concerns with you in a timely fashion. Your grade will be negatively impacted if more than one class is missed as an unexcused absence. Please communicate any classes that you may miss to this Instructor via email (rowea@umich.edu) or phone/text (734-845-1442). Any failure to communicate an absence to this Instructor will result in a two-point deduction for that day.

Each class encourages dialogue regarding the readings, lectures, and in-class skills demonstrations. Participation in this course will occur in small and large group discussions. It is essential to abide by the NASW Code of Ethics and maintain the highest level of respect for another as colleagues/peers, as well as for the clients/communities that we will be discussing in class. Please avoid the use of electronics during the course. If you need to take a phone call or respond to a text message or email, then please step out of the class and return when you are done. It is expected that your computer only be used to take notes during lectures.

Levels of participation may vary based on comfort and interest in topics discussed. I will do my best to honor each student’s participation level in the course. Please communicate any difficulty that you are experiencing related to course materials and discussions and I will do my best to help resolve the matter or identify appropriate support services if requested.

A Note on the Learning Environment:
The class is designed as a co-learning environment and one where class members are encouraged to try new skills and take risks. Your contribution as a “teacher and a learner” in the class will enhance the learning for all class members.

Quality change agents must be self-aware, self-reflective, and open to exploring our own histories and issues regarding any given concern or population. Be prepared to reflect on and explore your own family history, social systems, experiences, identity, cultural background and assumptions regarding all forms of diversity. There will be a variety of ways that students can do this through critical thinking, assignments and active participation in class discussions and activities.

Being honest, sensitive, and respectful to each other in preparation for quality community action and social action practice is one of the learning environment goals. Please share opinions and feedback with others in discussions and exercises, and when you do so, please try to state them in a respectful and constructive manner.

Also, prepare yourself to hear varying opinions and feedback non-defensively, and to use those data or challenge them constructively. Please practice tolerance, not expecting yourself or your classmates to be polished in discussions about issues that can be challenging and confusing. We can expect to blunder and make mistakes in the classroom so that we are better prepared when we are in the field; please honor this process.

A student is expected to be on time, prepared with questions from readings, DVDs and assignments, respectful of diverse perspectives, open to learning and to complete assignments on time.

All assignments are expected to be handed in on their due date prior to the end of the day (11:59pm), unless otherwise indicated in CANVAS.

Late assignments will be marked down 2.5% for every day late.

COVID-19 Statement
For the safety of all students, faculty, and staff on campus, it is important for each of us to be mindful of safety measures that have been put in place for our protection. By returning to campus, you have acknowledged your responsibility for protecting the collective health of our community. Your participation in this course on an in-person/hybrid basis is conditional upon your adherence to all safety measures mandated by the State of Michigan and the University, including maintaining physical distancing of six feet from others, and properly wearing a face covering in class. Other applicable safety measures may be described in the Wolverine Culture of Care and the University’s Face Covering Policy for COVID-19. Your ability to participate in this course in-person/hybrid may be impacted by failure to comply with campus safety measures. Individuals seeking to request an accommodation related to the face covering requirement under the Americans with Disabilities Act should contact the Office for Institutional Equity. If you are unable or unwilling to adhere to these safety measures while in a face-to-face class setting, you will be required to participate on a remote basis.

Students who fail to comply with remote-only participation will be de-enrolled from the class and will be reported as violating the Student Rights and Responsibilities COVID Addendum language which states:

1. Members of the Student community are expected to comply with health and safety laws, orders, ordinances, regulations or health and safety guidance adopted by the University as it relates to public health crises, including COVID-19, where failure to do so may result in public health risk. This guidance will evolve as the public health crisis evolves and may include, but is not limited to, social distancing, mandatory COVID-19 testing, de-densifying efforts, limitations on mass gatherings, wearing a face covering, contact tracing, and quarantine / isolation requirements.

2. Failure to comply with the public health guidance adopted by the U-M as it relates to face coverings, which is subject to change and which is currently located at: http://ehs.umich.edu/wpcontent/uploads/2020/07/U-M-Face-Covering-Policy-for-COVID-19.pdf

3. Failure to participate in and maintain isolation and/or quarantine, as instructed by a health care provider or public health officials, which may include U-M Environmental health and safety. Students seeking to request an accommodation related to the face covering requirement under the Americans with Disabilities Act should contact the Office for Institutional Equity.

4. Hosting or attending a social gathering larger than the allowable limits set by any state or local law or University policy. This provision does not preclude constitutionally protected activity, such as protesting, or individuals who may be residing together in a single household.
Health-Related Class Absences
Please evaluate your own health status regularly and refrain from attending class and coming to campus if you are ill. You are encouraged to seek appropriate medical attention for treatment. School of Social Work students who miss class due to illness of any kind will be given opportunities to access course materials online or provided with alternative learning opportunities. Please notify me by email about your absence as soon as practical, so that I can make accommodations. Please note that documentation (a Doctor’s note) for medical excuses is not required.

Class Recording and Course Materials
Audio and video recording of in-class lectures and discussions is prohibited without the advance written permission of the instructor. Students with an approved accommodation from the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities permitting the recording of class meetings must present documentation to the instructor in advance of any recording being done. The instructor reserves the right to disallow recording for a portion of any class time where privacy is a special concern. If the instructor chooses to record a class, they will decide which classes, if any, are recorded, what portion of each class is recorded, and whether a recording is made available on the course management website. On days when classes are recorded, students will be notified a recording is occurring. Class recordings and course materials may not be reproduced, sold, published or distributed to others, in whole or in part, without the written consent of the instructor. Concept Map/Play List: (15 points/15%)
Due February 7, 2020
Students will create a map of the core concepts of community action and social change. The map will help students define key ideas, develop key questions, and showcase their understanding of the basic terms. The goal is to help build critical thinking around CASC.

(1) Map: The maps can be creative and should reflect your best understanding of what community action and social change is as a concept.

(2) Play List: Create a “Spotify” or “Pandora” Playlist of at least 15 songs that reflect core concepts. For each song, be able to discuss what the concept is and why you selected the song.

We’ll generate ideas in class and have an opportunity for students to workshop draft maps in class with peers.

Final Version will be submitted on CANVAS.

Semester-Long Project

Due: April 3, 2020

Students will develop a semester-long project based on their passion or interest/desire to learn about or further your own efforts in Community Action & Social Change. The goal is to learn to plan and implement an idea that relates to your interests. Project Materials and Work Logs will be due on November 26th.

Step 1: Proposal

Due: January 31, 2020

Students will prepare a short proposal to discuss the issue they will be working on, why they picked this issue, why this issue is important to CASC, the project they plan to pursue, and the questions they hope to learn from the project.

Students will be asked to develop a “Root Cause Tree” as part of their proposal. Be creative! Root Cause Tree Examples

In addition to describing their project, students should include any areas they feel they will need support. Students will get feedback (either written or in-person) to support their project plan.

Step 2: Action Project:

Students will develop an action project. The goal is to do something that you care about or want to learn about that relates to CASC. The part of the project should be roughly 15 hours of work time outside of class (not including the project paper). Students are expected to keep an activity log to document work and activities; this must be submitted to CANVAS along with your 5 – 7 page paper or presentation.

Examples of projects include:

- Prepare a resource guide for student groups (like an annotated bibliography) with curriculum, websites around a topic (e.g. educational justice, prison reform, racial justice) or approach to community change work (e.g. community organizing, community facilitation, popular education).

- Develop an organizational strategy/action plan for an organization, program or a campaign for campus (could be current or proposed).

- Engage in a current campaign/action on a current issue. Provide plans and materials from campaign/action.

- Organize an event/activity around a social justice issue that you care about. Provide plans and materials from event/activity.

- Develop a one-day workshop curriculum on a specific social justice topic that could be implemented in the community/on campus with related curriculum and

- Conduct at least 3 Interviews with current social justice leaders on an issue/topic that you are interested in, transcribe/provide a detail summary of the interviews. Be prepared to turn in transcripts/summaries.

- Watch a least 3 social justice movies and develop a guide for how these movies could be used in a student organization/class to raise issues, further social

- Conduct a research project on a social justice topic that could inform campus or community

- Read a CASC- Themed Book and develop a resource guide/thematic analysis for using the books to discuss social justice issues.

Examples of books include:
- Nicolas Kristof & Sheryl WuDunn “Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide”;
- Michelle Alexander “The New Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness”;
- Ta-Nehisi Coates “Between the World and Me”;
- Rinku Sen & Fekkak Mamdouh “Accidental American: Immigration and Citizenship in the Age of Globalization”; and
- Paolo Freire “Pedagogy of the Oppressed”.
- You may also suggest/find your own book.

Step 3: Paper or Presentation
Due: April 3, 2020

OPTION 1 – Paper:
Students will be asked to write a 5-7 page paper (plus additional attachments) that reflects on the project work and includes the following:

- Describe the topic and why you picked it? (4 points)
- What did you do for your project? (3 points)
- What did you learn specifically from this work? How did this match what you hoped to learn? (4 points)
- Why does your project this matter for CASC work, generally? How does it relate to core themes/concepts/ideas that we have talked about in class? (6 points)
- Based on your project learning and class learning (topics, themes and readings), what are three key takeaways for you for future CASC work? (3 points)
Attachments (in addition to the 5-7 pages):
- Work log: Detailed description of activities and time/effort put into project (Can be an excel file or word document)
- Project artifacts (e.g. resource guide, materials, curriculum, transcripts, plans, event flyers, meeting notes)

Step 4: Project Sharing

Students who are not doing the extended presentation will be prepared to share projects with class in a 10 minute presentation on December 3rd and 10th. The presentation can be either formal or informal; you may choose a presentation style that best meets the needs of the topic that you are presenting on in class. Interactive presentations are encouraged!

OPTION 2 - Presentation:

A 20-25 minute presentation that includes both your semester long research will be provided through an interactive activity. The activity is aimed at getting the class engaged in your work. You may choose to do a 20 minute presentation (e.g. 10 minutes of work that you have done and 10--15 minutes of group work).

If you choose to do the 20-25 minute presentation you do not have to do the 5-7 page paper, but you will still have to submit your work log of at least 15 hours.

Students will provide a 20-25 minute presentation for their classmates which will include:
- Describe the topic and why you picked it? (4 points)
- What did you do for your project? (3 points)
- What did you learn specifically from this work? How did this match what you hoped to learn? (4 points)

- Project artifacts (e.g. resource guide, materials, curriculum, transcripts, plans, event flyers, meeting notes)

Step 4: Project Sharing

Students will be prepared to share projects with class in a 20-25 minute presentation on 11/26, 12/3, and 12/10. The presentation can be either formal or informal; you may choose a presentation style that best meets the needs of the topic that you are presenting on in class.

Final Paper/ Letter to Our Future Selves

Due April 10, 2020

This final paper is meant to be a way to apply class concepts and learning in meaningful ways. For this assignment you will write a letter (2 to 4 pages) to your future self. In the letter, please think about what you want to remind yourself about community action and social change. Be prepared to synthesize across the class learning, readings, activities, and assignments. Be as creative as you want, but the letter should reflect your learning from the class and your ability to apply the ideas and concepts to your own life.

Religious/Spiritual Observances

Students will be excused from class for religious/spiritual observances. Please let the instructor know ahead of time about any conflicts between class sessions, assignments, and religious observances. Every reasonable effort will be made to help students avoid negative academic consequences when their religious obligations conflict with academic requirements. Absence from classes or examinations for religious reasons does not relieve students from responsibility for any part of the course work required during the period of absence. Students who expect to miss classes, examinations, or other assignments as a consequence of their religious observance shall be provided with a reasonable alternative opportunity to complete such academic responsibilities.

Incompletes
Incompletes are given only when it can be demonstrated that it would be unfair to hold the student the stated time limits of the course. The Student Guide, Vol. 1, Sec. 8.01 states that and I grade is used when illness or other compelling reasons prevent completion of work, and there is a definite plan and date for completion of course work approved by the instructor. The student must formally request an incomplete from the instructor prior to the final week of classes.
