1. Course Statement

a. Course description

This advanced practice course builds on content from previous foundational courses and focuses on the processes of group interventions with diverse client populations, across various client concerns and in a variety of practice settings such as healthcare, mental health, and other community-based settings. The focus of this course is on the development and utilization of group skills and interventions.

Particular attention will be given to the recruitment and composition of group members, leadership structure of groups, phases of group development, and group processes such as decision-making, tension reduction, conflict resolution, goal setting, contracting, and evaluation. Students will learn how to assess and intervene with group problems such as scapegoating, member resistance, low morale, over-active participation, etc. They will learn to employ a variety of intra-group strategies and techniques such as programs, structured activities, exercises, etc.

Interventions consistent with the achievement of social justice through group work practice will be emphasized. The course will also consider how gender, ethnicity, race, social class, sexual orientation, and different abilities will impact various aspects of group functioning such as purpose, composition, leadership, selection of intervention strategies, and group development.
b. Course objectives and competencies

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Develop and operationalize a working knowledge of the various types of groups (i.e. support, therapy, tasks, focus, prevention, rehabilitation, etc), the stages of the evolution/development and life cycle of groups and the impact of these factors on group dynamics and group functioning. (EPAS 6,7)

2. Develop and use knowledge of the types and stages of groups to identify group processes to determine and demonstrate effective interventions. (EPAS 6, 7, 8)

3. Recognize multiple factors including, but not limited to, composition, screening, format, contraindications, interventions and process elements when considering the development and/or use of groups as a client/population intervention. (EPAS 2, 6, 7, 8)

4. Demonstrate knowledge of group roles, dynamics, norms and communication styles and patterns and identity/utilize appropriate interventions to promote effective group functioning and desired group outcomes. (EPAS 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9)

5. Analyze the impact of and apply various types of leadership styles in facilitating group processes. (EPAS 1, 7, 8)

6. Identify common problems that emerge in groups and utilize group conflict resolution interventions to address, utilize and resolve these problems. (EPAS 6, 7, 8)

7. Demonstrate ability to effectively and ethically consider, plan and carry out a range of evidence-based/evidence-informed structured activities and interventions across diverse populations, cultural backgrounds, and sociopolitical contexts to address client concerns/needs in a variety of practice settings. (EPAS 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 8)

8. Demonstrate ability to form worker-group member alliances and collaborations, communicate empathetically, and help enhance client-centered motivation for change, cultivate hope, and address ambivalence and internal and external barriers to change. (EPAS 6,8)

9. Demonstrate sensitivity to interpersonal dynamics, voluntary or involuntary participation and social/cultural/contextual factors of both the group facilitator(s) and diverse group members which can both strengthen and potentially threaten therapeutic alliance and group functioning (EPAS 1,2,7)

10. Describe and effectively respond to the impact of key diversity dimensions for both the facilitator(s) and members of a group such as ability, age, class, color, culture, ethnicity, family structure, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), marital status, national origin, race, religion or spirituality, and sexual orientation on the dynamics of group structure and group process. (EPAS 2,8)

11. Assess the effectiveness of various types of groups and various interventions utilizing specific evaluation measures that can be integrated into monitoring and evaluating group work. (EPAS 7,9)

c. Course design

This advanced practice course will focus on utilization of a flipped classroom approach in which students complete pre-work (readings, viewing videos, etc.) with in-class time used for limited didactic lecture and a primary focus on students actively developing and practicing group intervention skills and techniques.

Active engagement in a variety of group interventions, role plays, observation and critical analysis of various interventions, matching group interventions to various populations and client needs and mutual constructive feedback is critical to the skill development focus of this course.

d. Intensive focus on Privilege, Oppression, Diversity and Social Justice (PODS)

This course integrates PODS content and skills with a special emphasis on the identification of theories, practice and/or policies that promote social justice, illuminate injustices and are consistent with scientific and professional knowledge. Through the use of a variety of instructional methods, this course will support students developing a vision of social justice, learn to recognize and reduce mechanisms that support oppression and injustice, work toward social justice processes, apply intersectionality and intercultural frameworks and strengthen critical consciousness, self-knowledge and self-awareness to facilitate PODS learning.
Group work is grounded in Social Work's historical involvement with various reform movements at the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th century. This course will examine the contemporary relevance of social justice practice in group work practice and diverse ways this may be integrated into social work practice in a variety of settings.

Key diversity dimensions have an impact on membership and composition, which in turn, influence various aspects of group dynamics. Attention will be given to considerations regarding diversity dimensions such as ability, age, class, color, culture, ethnicity, family structure, gender (including gender identity and gender expression), marital status, national origin, race, religion or spirituality, and sexual orientation on the dynamics of group structure and group process.

NOTE: Anti-oppression and anti-racist frameworks will be integrated throughout this course.

a. Text and class materials:

RELEVANT JOURNALS

The following journals are oriented primarily toward group research, practice and education:

Group, The Journal of the Eastern Group Psychotherapy Society

International Journal of Group Psychotherapy

Journal for Specialists in Group Work

Small Group Research (A combination of two journals: Small Group Behavior and International Journal of Small Group Research)

Social Work with Groups

Readings as assigned/posted on Canvas

- To fully engage in the course topic and become a competent and skilled social work practitioner, it is expected that students will complete all required readings.
- Assigned readings will be discussed in class or via Zoom.
- Readings will be posted on Canvas at least one week in advance

b. Assignments

1. Simulated Group Portfolio (20% Due September 23, 2022, via Canvas by 11:59 PM) Simulation Pedagogy-
   a. The core pedagogy for this class will be the development and implementation of simulated groups.
   b. Class members will be simulated clients in groups we create in class.
   c. Facilitation teams will be comprised of approx. 4-5 students, who will share the active facilitation of the group sessions.
   d. Each group will meet for two sessions of approximately 1 hour in length. The members will be consistent across both sessions.
   e. Sessions will be conducted in-person during class (see dates below). Annotation of these group sessions form the core assignments for the class. Details and Rubric will be uploaded in Canvas and discussed further in class.
   f. GROUP SESSION 1 & 2 (25% each see below for due dates)
      a. Everyone will be individually graded for two facilitation/Co-facilitations reflections and two group member participations reflections. (Note: this grade will not be based on “performance” as long as you are demonstrating the expected skills)

2. Assessment in Group Work Practice - (20% Due December 2, 2022 via Canvas by 11:59 PM )

For this assignment, you are asked to observe and assess one formal group session of your choice. The group could be a committee meeting, a field placement staff meeting, a treatment group (e.g., that you either observe or facilitate) or an on-line support group. You are expected to maintain anonymity of participants (i.e., do not use actual group member names or initials) and in observing the group, it must be of the kind that will allow you to complete each one of the following required tasks:

Task 1:

Describe the group's (a) context (e.g., sponsor, full description of physical setting (Hint: a room diagram helps!)), (b) purpose, (c) composition, (d) size, (e) frequency (i.e., how often scheduled to meet), length, and duration (how many sessions planned), (f) open vs. closed, and (g) type (treatment, task, psycho-educational, self-help / mutual aid, or some combination; and (h) session context (what’s the session you observed about?).

Task 2:
Refer to the Handbook of Social Work with Groups to identify the (a) group work approaches related to its setting/purpose/models and describe the approach the facilitator took with your chosen group; (b) chart and record each member’s frequency of interactions (i.e., this will describe how you “measured” communication and interaction); (c) measure (chart) the group members’ social preferences (i.e., the group’s sociometry); (d) comment on your observation of the group’s social controls and (e) offer a general view of the group’s culture; (f) comment on the charting and recording used both in terms of strengths and limitations; (g) on the basis of your observations, speculate on relevant aspects of the group’s dynamics at the time you made your observations (e.g., were you able to identify distinct subgroups or patterns of interaction based on seating? Did your observations help you identify task and socio-emotional leaders within the group? Were there other roles that could be associated with particular members?)

Task 3:

In your observation, you should have identified aspects of the group that appear as strengths (that contribute to the group’s success) and/or that appear challenging or problematic to the group's ability to get its work done or pursue its purpose. (a) Describe the strengths and/or concerns relevant to the group’s functioning. If you’ve raised a specific problem or concern, select an appropriate intervention to address the level of problem or concern. (b) Offer your specific observations that you believe characterize the strengths of the group and/or suggest a plan for intervention (focused on the group as a whole, subset of members, an individual or the group in interaction with its environment) that you believe will enhance the success of the group. (Please reference the videos in the annotations and reflections for support)

Your paper should be divided into three sections corresponding to the three identified tasks AND sub-tasks as indicated by (a), (b), and so on. It should be 4-6 pages in length (charts, diagrams and graphs - extra), APA format and proof-read.

d. Attendance and class participation Student attendance is mandatory. Participation will be worth 20% of your grade. Students are responsible for securing lecture notes and handouts when circumstances prevent attendance. If absent, you will be required to summarize the readings independently and turn it in for participation credit for the day. While I understand that absences may sometimes occur, an excessive number of unexcused absences will result in lowering your final grade. Please contact me if personal matters or illness are interfering with regular class attendance.

e. Grading.
Final grades are based on 100 percentage points. Letter grades are assigned to point totals according to the following scale:

The criteria for each grade are as follows:

A  Mastery of subject content, demonstration of critical analysis, creativity and/or complexity in completion of the assignment. The difference between A+, A, and A- is based on the degree to which these skills are demonstrated.

B+  Mastery of subject content beyond expected competency, but has not demonstrated additional critical analysis, creativity, or complexity in the completion of the assignment.

B  Mastery of subject content at level of expected competency – meets course expectations

Four Notes on Grading:
1. Class attendance and class participation are essential for this course. Therefore; you are expected to attend, to be prepared, and to make reasonable contributions. It is your responsibility to get materials, handouts, or class notes from one of your classmates if you are unable to attend a class.
2. It is best not to assume you will receive an “A” in this course. I grade on a relative, not absolute, grading scale. Since virtually all of you were “A” students as undergraduates there will be a natural and necessary redistribution at the graduate level.
3. In general, I do accept challenges to grades. However, challenges must be in writing (not verbal); must be specific; and must be based on substantive arguments (or mathematical errors) not on nebulous references to “fairness.” I reserve the right to re-read, and re-grade, the work in its entirety in the case of a challenge. The grade may be adjusted upwards or downwards.
4. Here are some reference links regarding grading:
   o Grades in Academic Courses and in Field Instruction
   o Student Grievance procedures
   o CRLT Testing and Grading

General Expectations for Written Work. Written work will be evaluated in relation to how well it addresses the topic and the clarity of the presentation. It is important to follow assignment instructions carefully. Please edit your work. If possible have someone proofread for you. Spell checkers and grammar checkers are useful, but not as reliable as a human reader. Please note I do grade on the quality of the writing. Clear writing is generally aligned with clear thinking.

Due Dates
Due dates will be posted on Canvas. All assignments must be submitted to the appropriate folder on Canvas by the posted deadline. Exceptions to the due dates will require prior permission. I understand that it can be challenging to complete coursework while working and attending class from home, where you may be immersed in additional responsibilities. I have spread the required assignment throughout the semester in order to avoid a large final assignment. Because each assignment really does have an impact on your grade, please do let me know if you foresee a problem with a due date.

Social work students can receive individual writing assistance from Betsy Williams, Writing Skills and Study Skills Coordinator, through the UM SSW Career Services office. Students may schedule an appointment and bring a draft of their paper (at any stage) along with the text of the assignment and any questions or concerns they may have. Email ssw-cso@umich.edu or call 734-763-6259.
I may re-evaluate the submitted work, and/or I may ask you to complete additional work in order to bring the work up to standard in order to adjust your grade.

Please consult the MSW Student Guide policies on Grades in Academic Courses and in Field Instruction as well as Student Grievance procedures and the policy for grading in special circumstances can be referenced using these links.

f. Class Recording and Course Materials

Audio and video recording of in-class lectures and discussions is prohibited without my advance written permission. Students with an approved accommodation from the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities permitting the recording of class meetings must present documentation to me in advance of any recording being done. If permission is granted, the audio and/or video recording is to be used only for the student’s personal instructional use. Such recordings are not intended for a wider public audience, such as postings to the internet, social media or sharing with others.

Even when permission to record has been given, I reserve the right to disallow recording for a portion of any class time where privacy is a special concern. Due to the sensitive nature of the topics we will be discussing, there will be several times when a recording in process will be stopped and where I will require any students who are recording to cease recording so that we may have an open and honest discussion.

When I choose to record a class, I will decide which classes, if any, are recorded, what portion of each class is recorded, and whether a recording is made available on Canvas. On days when classes are recorded, students will be notified a recording is occurring. Class recordings and course materials may not be reproduced, sold, published or distributed to others, in whole or in part, without the written consent of the instructor. Additional information on class recordings can be found in the Recording and Privacy Concerns FAQ:

Class Discourse

Discussion of child welfare, child abuse and neglect can be an emotional topic and could serve to trigger painful memories or create anxiety in students due to any number of factors. Discussion of child maltreatment necessarily involves risk, divergent points of view and conflict. It is imperative to respect differences in perspective and seek to understand those differences. While my goal is to ensure that the classroom is a safe learning space, discussion, and the growth and learning that arises from it, can sometimes be uncomfortable or invoke an emotional reaction to the topic being discussed. I hope that all students work with me to create and foster a learning environment that promotes social justice, inclusion, equity and thoughtful coverage of the subject matter.

This is an opportunity for all of us to engage in professional discourse and to broaden our mutual development of cultural humility. We will examine how the structure of current programs and policies designed to prevent or to address child maltreatment have evolved from and still reflect biases and negative beliefs about various populations or social identity groups. Disagreements are expected and are welcomed as long as we respect diverse opinions and one another and refrain from attacking or insulting others. For some topics, I will structure a formal debate format in order that multiple sides of an issue are clearly heard and rebutted. I may also ask you to take the opposite side of an issue from what you might normally prefer. This is to help you expand your thinking about the topic, solidify your point of view and help you understand what the opposition to a position you may wish to take may be thinking, thus the better prepared you are to address that opposition.

I believe that all of us are learning together, and as such, I will ask many questions of you in class. Through dialog and careful consideration of issues, you will learn how to create, evaluate and analyze the child welfare system in simple and complex forms, and to think carefully about the issues at hand. I ask questions to prompt thinking, to provoke reaction and to help you hone your point of view. Remain open to evidence presented, which may conflict with your own personal viewpoints and perspectives. I expect you to be engaged in the course material and contributing questions and comments in class discussions. Your class participation score is not solely dependent upon how frequently you speak in class, rather on the quality of your participation, your attention to the subject matter and your willingness to engage with the subject matter.

Protect confidentiality

One of the fundamental ethical values of social work is protecting client confidentiality. In this seminar, you will be exposed to conversations or environments that involve real individuals and real families. You will be expected to keep class materials/activities confidential.

g. COVID-19 Statement
For the safety of all students, faculty, and staff on campus, it is important for each of us to be mindful of safety measures that have been put in place for our protection. Your participation in this course is conditional upon your adherence to all safety measures mandated by the state of Michigan and the University, including properly wearing a face covering in class and compliance with the University COVID-19 Vaccination Policy. Other applicable and additional safety measures may be described in the Campus Maize & Blueprint. Your ability to participate in this course may be impacted by failure to comply with campus safety measures. Individuals seeking to request an accommodation related to the face covering requirement under the Americans with Disabilities Act should contact the Office for Institutional Equity and those seeking an exemption related to the vaccination requirement should submit an exemption request through WolverineAccess. I also encourage you to review the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities and the COVID-related Addendum to the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

h. Health-Related Class Absences
Please evaluate your own health status regularly and refrain from attending class and coming to campus if you are ill. You are encouraged to seek appropriate medical attention for treatment. School of Social Work students who miss class due to illness of any kind will be given opportunities to access course materials online or provided with alternative learning opportunities. Please notify me by email about your absence as soon as practical, so that I can make accommodations. Please note that documentation (a doctor’s note) for medical excuses is not required.
