1. Course Statement

a. Course description
Introduction to Social Work Practice will prepare students to successfully approach both social work education and social work practice. The course will introduce social work students to key social work ideas, values, concepts, and skills, including the code of ethics, social work’s grand challenges and P.O.D.S. (privilege, oppression, diversity and social justice). Students will be oriented to social work education at the University of Michigan, including how professional graduate education may differ from past educational experiences, specialization options available, and the role of lifelong learning. Students will be introduced to a professional portfolio that they will use throughout their time in the program.

b. Course objectives and competencies
- Develop a sense of belonging to the UM MSW program by interacting with fellow students and faculty.
- Describe ethical decision-making processes as applied to social work practice settings in a manner that reflects the laws, regulations, and code of ethics of social work (Essential 36, 44; EPAS 1).
● Identify how social workers ethically engage with technology practice (Essential 26; EPAS 1).
● Recognize how social work practice connects to the “Grand Challenges” (Essential 31; EPAS 2).
● Identify ways social workers can engage in social justice and anti-racism work (Essential 30, 45; EPAS 1, 2, 3, 5).
● Develop a self-care plan that includes elements across different domains (Essential 40, 43; EPAS 1, 6).

c. Course design
This course will use multiple methods including but not limited to: lectures, demonstrations, case studies, readings, guest speakers, discussions, written assignments, individual and group exercises.

d. Course Relationship to P.O.D.S.
This course will introduce students to P.O.D.S. (privilege, oppression, diversity and social justice) as the framework through which social work education and practice can be viewed. Students will explore how these concepts manifest in social work practice, including in such places as the grand challenges or the code of ethics.

This course integrates P.O.D.S. content and skills with a special emphasis on the identification of theories, practice and/or policies that promote social justice, illuminate injustices and are consistent with scientific and professional knowledge. Through the use of a variety of instructional methods, this course will support students developing a vision of social justice, learn to recognize and reduce mechanisms that support oppression and injustice, work toward social justice processes, apply intersectionality and intercultural frameworks and strengthen critical consciousness, self-knowledge and self-awareness to facilitate P.O.D.S. learning.

2. Class Requirements

a. Text and class materials
There is one textbook for this course, Digital Portfolio Construction: A guide for showcasing Social Work Skills (First Edition), by Fitch, Ruffolo and Austin (2021). You will use portions of this book for this class, and portions in your capstone course that you take in your final semester (so you don’t want to purchase the limited access e-book). You can purchase this book directly through the Cognella, Inc student store to receive discounted pricing and expanded format options. Purchase your course material here: https://store.cognella.com/60339-1a-006
If you need any help with ordering from Cognella, feel free to email orders@cognella.com or call 858-800-2675.

All other readings for this course will be copied or linked, and made available on Canvas – the University online course management system. Information and instruction on how to use Canvas is already provided by the university; therefore, no class time will be devoted to instruction on how to use this system.

Students are expected to have completed all assigned readings prior to class, as these will serve as the basis for class discussion, activities, assignments, quizzes and examinations.

b. Class schedule

Topics may be modified throughout the course, but ample notice will be provided. Refer to Canvas for the most updated class schedule.

c. Assignments

There are three categories of assignments for this class. The major assignment is a “What, So What, Now What” reflection assignment with a series of milestones. The second are regular, brief assignments, usually (but not always) taking the form of online discussions through Canvas. The third is the initiation of your portfolio. Each of these three are described below.

1. Master Assignment: Social Work Ethical and Professional Behavior

Master Assignment Summary: The master assignment for the Introduction to Social Work course is a set of cumulative, reflective responses that will result in a final paper related to social work ethical and professional behavior. It will use a reflective practice widely used in education and in clinical settings, known as "what, so what, now what." The assignment will span our time together in the course with milestones throughout our class sessions.

a) Milestone 1
   Due 11:59PM ET, Friday September 15th, 2023

Upload the supplementary statement you submitted when you applied to the social work program. As a reminder, this statement asked you to accomplish a couple of things. Including:
   ● Discuss a social justice issue you would like to address in your career. What skills and knowledge would you like to obtain in the MSW program to support your career objectives?
   ● Describe how your personal and intellectual qualifications, past human service experience, and/or future goals are relevant to furthering social justice. Please use specific examples.

b) Milestone 2: What
   Recommended Deadline: 11:59PM ET, Saturday September 16, 2023  Final Deadline: 11:59PM ET, Monday, September 18, 2023

The purpose of this milestone is to think about the values and ethics that drew you to social work or the type of social work you want to practice (hint: this is why we had you dig out & post your application essay). Write a reflective essay about your values and ethics. Specifically, consider:
   ● What social work values and ethics apply to your decision to become a social worker?
   ● Which apply to the decision about the area of social work in which you would like to practice?
   ● If you have a BSW, which apply to your decision to practice at a graduate level?
Rely heavily on course content (especially our Code of Ethics), including a thoughtful integration of lectures and readings, to identify these values and ethics and how they might be relevant to this area of practice. Move beyond simply listing them, but rather, dig in, describe, and provide a context for the anticipated application of these values in practice.

Suggested length, 1 page single-spaced.

c) Milestone 3: So what
Due 11:59PM ET, Friday September 22, 2023

The purpose of this milestone is to think about why values and ethics matter and how they are put into practice around us. Use the following questions as a guide:

- Now that you have spent some weeks in the social work program, how have the values and ethics you identified in Milestone 2 further emerged as important/relevant?
- How have you seen them play out in class? In field (if you are in field)? In relationships with others in the School? At work? In social situations? In the news?
- Reflect on ethical decision making. Why and when does this matter?

Suggested length, 1-2 pages single-spaced.

d) Milestone 4: Now what
Due: 11:59PM ET, Monday September 25, 2023

The purpose of this milestone is to take your reflections on your values to the next level and start thinking about future growth. The Code of Ethics discusses our ethical obligations to our clients, our colleagues, our profession, and our employers. As you reflect, consider:

- What are some next steps for you in your learning to further understand and implement your social work values and ethics in each of these areas?
- Where are your growth areas and how might you stretch yourself to further understand and practice ethically?
- How might this shape your future path, including entering a field placement?

Suggested length, 1/2 - 1 page single-spaced.

2. Regular, Brief Assignments

After each class session, you will be asked to do a brief assignment related to the content from the class. For weeks 1-3, these take the form of a discussion prompt through Canvas. In week 4, you will write a letter to your future self. Details for each of these assignments/discussions can be found on Canvas.
3. Portfolio

Due: 11:59PM ET, Monday, September 25, 2023

In this assignment, you will initiate the development of a web-based portfolio using Portfolium. Portfolios are a collection of your accomplishments, skills, and experiences that can be shared digitally to promote your abilities. Even when students do not share their portfolios with others, the act of collecting products and reflecting on them helps students build a narrative that aids students in conversations with future employers.

This assignment has three steps:

- Step #1: Complete the training module, which teaches you about building an ePortfolio in Portfolium.
- Step #2: Begin setting up your profile on the Profile tab by completing the introduction as described in the training module. You are welcome to add your resume, education and other information to your portfolio, but this is not required in this assignment.
- Step #3: Upload your master assignment as a “project” in your Portfolium portfolio in the Portfolio tab.

d. Attendance and class participation

Students must arrive on time, engage in all course materials, and attend all synchronous class sessions for the course. It is expected that students participate actively and equally in class discussion, class assignments, and group activities - both online and in live sessions. Failure to do so could result in a non-passing grade. Please see the SSW Policy on Class Attendance found in the MSW Student Guide. Communication is key to the Social Work Technical Standards. Please email me and or call 734-647-9433 if you have any questions or concerns regarding this course.

e. Grading

This class will be graded as Satisfactory (Pass) or Unsatisfactory (Fail). In order to pass this class (Satisfactory), you must fully attend all live class sessions, complete all pre and post class work, participate and engage in large and small group discussions, and submit class assignments (of satisfactory quality). The relative weighing of each course element is as follows:

- Standard Assignment: 50%
- Brief Assignments: 20%
- Portfolio: 20%
• Participation: 10%
Extra credit is available. Details are available on Canvas.

Occasionally, unforeseen circumstances arise (e.g., illness, mental health, personal, or family related) which may make it difficult for you to complete an assignment by its designated due date or time. Should this happen, please notify me to discuss options. Your request for an extension should take place MORE than 24 hours before an assignment is due whenever possible.

Please refer to the MSW Student Guide policies on Grades in Academic Courses and in Field Instruction as well as Student Grievance procedures and the policy for grading in special circumstances. Here are some resources around testing and grading from CRLT.
