Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior

Foundation

Social workers understand the value base of the profession and its ethical standards, as well as relevant laws and regulations that may impact practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels. Social workers understand frameworks of ethical decision-making and how to apply principles of critical thinking to those frameworks in practice, research, and policy arenas. Social workers recognize personal values and the distinction between personal and professional values. They also understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions influence their professional judgment and behavior. Social workers understand the profession's history, its mission, and the roles and responsibilities of the profession. Social Workers also understand the role of other professions when engaged in inter-professional teams. Social workers recognize the importance of life-long learning and are committed to continually updating their skills to ensure they are relevant and effective. Social workers also understand emerging forms of technology and the ethical use of technology in social work practice.

Ratings

Self-Rating

Field Instructor ratings will be collected upon final submission.

Assignment

Please select an assignment from the list below.

- I will explore my own values in relation to the NASW Code of Ethics, professional behavior (technical standards), in inter-professional settings, and the use of technology in Social Work through reflection during supervision.
- I will consider the role of ethics (the NASW Code of Ethics) in making decisions in an agency with my supervisor in a way that reflects on personal values and biases (and technology), and its role on displays of professional demeanor (technical standards) in Social Work and interprofessional settings.
- In considering the technology used in my field placement (including computers, phones, etc), I will reflect on ethical practices from the NASW Code of Ethics and professional behavior (technical standards) for using technology with my field supervisor.
- I will reflect on the following topics with my supervisor in at least four supervision sessions: ethics in Social Work, using technology in Social Work, interprofessional collaboration, and professional demeanor (technical standards) in Social Work.

Nuts and Bolts: Site Visits

- Held each semester with student and Field Instructor(s)-required
- In person or zoom
- Scheduled throughout the semester-most generally in the mid-late part of a semester
- Student is responsible for scheduling
- Field Faculty facilitates discussion
 - Connection to competencies
 - PODS (Privilege, Oppression, Diversity and Social Justice)
 - Integration of academic learning
 - Supervision

OTHER STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS

Key Learning Experience:

The Key Learning Assignment, due near the end of the term, requires students to reflect on a key learning experience and upload it via Canvas. Use the Key Learning Experience/Project Worksheet for guidance.

Field Connections:

Each term, students are required to attend a meeting with field faculty and peers to address concerns, ethical dilemmas, and career planning, while building relationships and practicing competency connections. These meetings count as field hours.

Managing Expectations

What to do when...

- sick
- late
- inclement weather
- car trouble

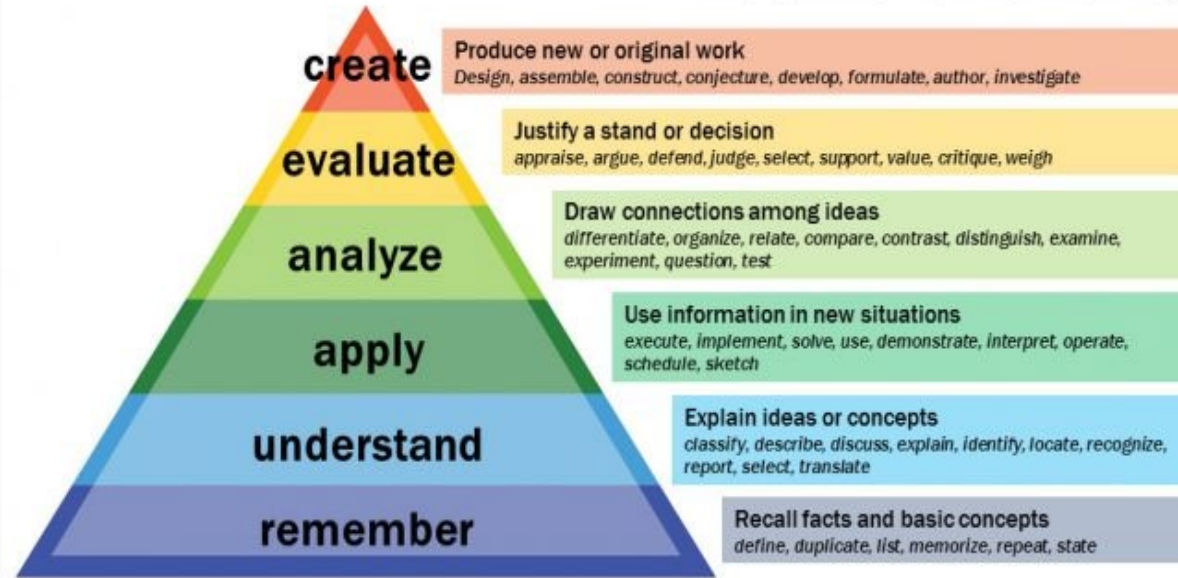

How to be...

- present in meetings
 - just listen
 - if/when to speak
 - guide-what to look for

Learning Process: Bloom's Taxonomy

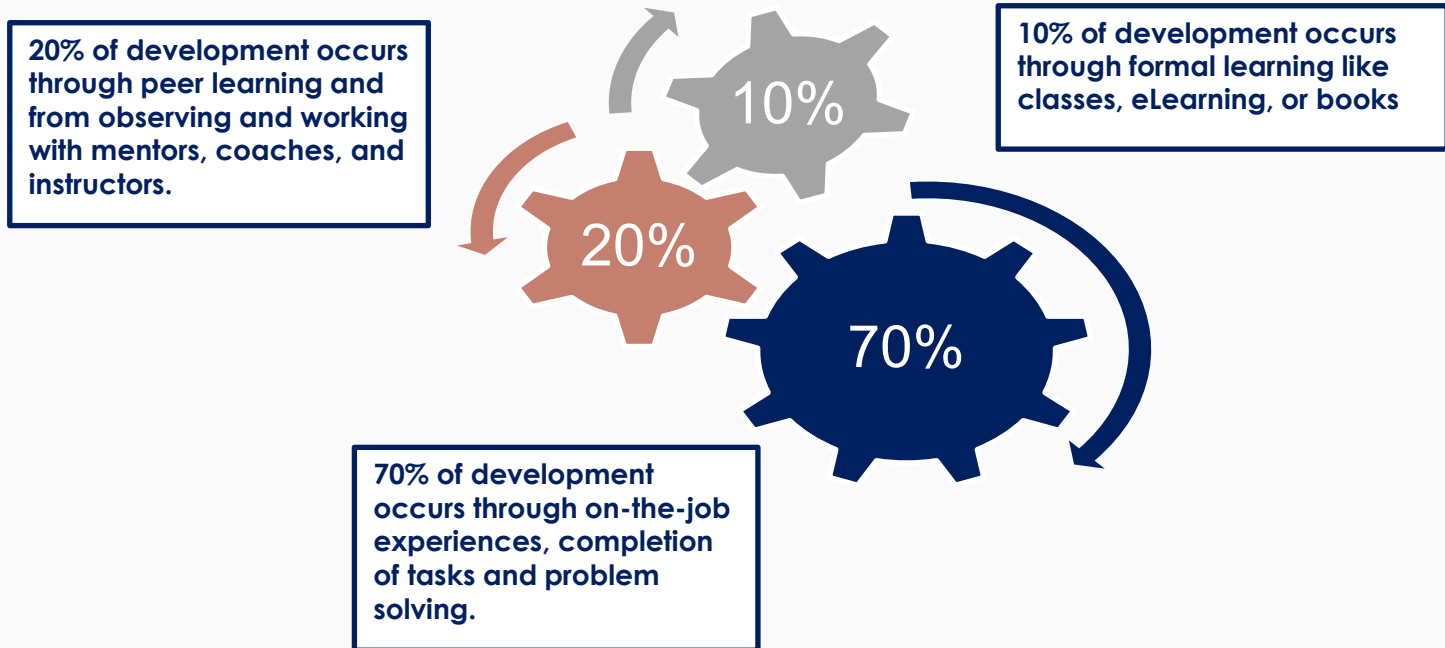

Bloom's Taxonomy

Learning Acquisition Methods

Giving and Receiving Feedback

- Most critical component of effective field instruction
 - Create a relationship and the expectation that you want feedback from the student as well
- Avoid the Hint and Hope Method
- Feedback (both positive and critical): timely, clear, specific, non-judgmental and actionable
- Integrate STAR method into supervision:
 - Situation – Task – Action – Results

STAR Method for Feedback

S Situation	Detail the background. Provide a context. Where? When?
T Task	Describe the challenge and expectations. What needed to be done? Why?
A Action	Elaborate your specific action. What did you do? How? What tools did you use?
R Results	Explain the results: accomplishments, recognition, savings, etc. Quantify.

'STAR' Technique to Answer Behavioral Interview Questions

Technical Standards

All students must certify their reading and understanding of the University of Michigan School of Social Work Technical Standards and Conduct Policy and that they are committed to demonstrating all the skills and abilities detailed in the policy. This policy addresses:

Students may participate in the graduate social work program so long as they abide by the SSW Technical Standards and Conduct Policy. Students who do not abide by these standards will be referred to the procedures described in volume 1, chapter 12.00, Violations of the Code of Academic and Professional Conduct.

Section 1.11.04: SSW Technical Standards and Conduct Policy

Poll Question #3

The STAR Method of giving feedback is an acronym representing which of the following:

1. Situation - Task - Action - Results
2. Scenario - Timeline - Action - Resolution
3. Setup - Task - Achievement - Result

Know Your Supervision Style

- Teaching is a process:
 - Reflect
 - Learn
 - Develop your style
- Articulate and discuss your style with your student
- Our most successful field instructors tend to be open-minded, adaptable, flexible and patient

Create a Vulnerability-Based Trust Relationship

- Be genuine and transparent about your own mistakes, uncertainties and vulnerabilities
- Model vulnerability
- Shift the students focus from a satisfaction and performance outcome to a learning, behavior, impact outcome

Articulate and Clarify Expectations

- Think about your learning objectives for your student and how they need to progress over time from exposure to immersion to supervised independence
 - * Practice patience with this process
- Determine the pace and approach that best fits your student.
 - *All students begin in different places
- Integrate learning from course work
- Support the development of critical thinking skills in practice

Normalize Mistakes in the Learning Process

- Our learning often occurs when we make mistakes
- Perfectionism is the enemy of the possible
- Encourage reasonable risk-taking and make time for reflection and processing mistakes
- Encourage reflective supervision using the “What? So What? Now What?” framework
