

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK HAS SEVERAL RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES!

WAYS MSW STUDENTS CAN GET INVOLVED IN SSW RESEARCH

CONNECT WITH FACULTY

- Email a faculty member directly along with a resume to see if they have work-study/temporary employment opportunities or would be open to supporting you in an independent study course. View directory at <https://ssw.umich.edu/faculty>

INDEPENDENT STUDY

- You can fulfill elective requirements & cover content and material not covered in the SSW curriculum. You can also substitute it for a required course. QR code below (left).

PLACEMENTS

- Communicate interest in faculty research when applying for field placement (must align with your program pathway)

WORK STUDY/TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT

- Sign up to see research job postings available within the School of Social Work (or other research labs at the University of Michigan). QR code below (right).

WHY SHOULD YOU GET INVOLVED IN RESEARCH?

- Gain applied research experience before you graduate! This could set you up for future research opportunities (PhD applications, etc.)
- Many opportunities are paid!
- Be apart of the SSW research community!

Complete this form if interested in taking an independent study course related to research!

Fill out the Temporary Employment Application to be added for faculty seeking research employees
