There is no rehearsal. It is important that graduates plan to arrive at Hill Auditorium at 9:00 am to receive instructions and be assembled in ample time for the procession. Upon arrival, go to the lower level where you will gather to robe, complete a name card for the announcement of your name, as well as one for the photographer’s use, get instructions on where to go for the group photo, and to assemble in alphabetical order for the procession. Tickets are not required for the SSW ceremony.

Graduates should not wear their Masters hood. Hoods should be carried over the left arm. As part of the ceremony, you will be “hooded” (the Masters hood placed over your head) by one of our Hooders. Your tassel should be on the right. The Marshals will give you further instructions and assemble you for the procession. Plan to leave any valuables with family and/or friends prior to the ceremony.

The entrance doors to the Hill Auditorium will not be open until 9:00 a.m. and seating for guests will begin at 9:00 a.m. Guest seating will be on the main floor. Should your guests need assistance/direction with seating, please have them speak with one of the ushers. Approximate length of program/ceremony: 1 hour and 15 mins.

NOTE: Please inform family and friends to remain seated in the auditorium until after the recessional and the platform party, faculty and all of the graduates have exited the auditorium. After the ceremony, you should plan to have your family and friends meet you at a designated area in the main lobby away from the doors to the auditorium so that guests can exit the auditorium in a timely manner.

SSW RECEPTION: Light refreshment will be available at the School of Social Work immediately following the Commencement ceremony.
