

The Rosemary Sarri Endowed Scholarship 2017-2018

I. Purpose and Eligibility

This award provides two scholarships, one for students in the MSW program and one for students in the Joint Doctoral program who have an interest in social policy or community organization. Preference is given to students with financial need.

II. Form of Support

For 2017-2018, a $4,100 award will be made to a Doctoral student in the form of tuition or stipend support.

III. Application Materials

The following application materials are required:

1. Application coversheet
2. One page proposal describing the ways in which your past, current, and future work has and/or will contribute to the advancement of community organizing, management, evaluation or social policy
3. Letter of support from a faculty member
4. Curricula Vitae
5. Current unofficial transcript
6. Financial Statement Form

IV. Review Process

The Doctoral Committee will evaluate the application materials. The criterion they will use is financial need and the extent to which the students' past work, current Doctoral studies, and future career goals are likely to contribute to the advancement of community organizing, management, evaluation or social policy.

It is anticipated that the review and decision-making will occur early in Winter term.

V. Deadline for Application Materials
