

The Rosemary Sarri Endowed Scholarship 2020-2021

I. Purpose and Eligibility

This award provides two scholarships, one for students in the MSW program and one for students in the Joint Doctoral program who have an interest in social policy or community organization. Preference is given to students with financial need.

Note: students will not be eligible for this award if they received a Meyer, Curtis or Kellogg Scholarship within the same year. In addition, students are not eligible to receive the same award more than once during their time in the Joint Doc Program. You must be in good standing to apply for this award.

II. Form of Support

For 2020-2021, a $1,500 award will be made to a Doctoral student in the form of tuition or stipend support.

III. Application Materials

The following application materials are required:

1. Application coversheet
2. One page proposal describing the ways in which your past, current, and future work has and/or will contribute to the advancement of community organizing, management, evaluation or social policy
3. Letter of support from a faculty member
4. Curricula Vitae
5. Financial Statement Form

IV. Review Process

The Doctoral Committee will evaluate the application materials. The criterion they will use is financial need and the extent to which the students' past work, current Doctoral studies, and future career goals are likely to contribute to the advancement of community organizing, management, evaluation or social policy.

It is anticipated that the review and decision-making will occur early in Winter term.
