Visiting Assistant Professor of Social Work

Department: Sociology, Anthropology and Social Work

Position Summary:
The Social Work Program within the Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Work invites applications for a position at the Visiting Assistant Professor level starting on August 16th, 2018, for a one-year period only. Responsibilities involve teaching multiple sections of Introduction to Social Work, Human Behavior in the Social Environment, and Social Welfare Policy, and other courses depending on program need. The teaching load for this position is a 4/4. Candidates should have experience teaching in social work and evidence of teaching effectiveness. The selected candidate must have an MSW degree from a CSWE accredited institution and a Ph.D. in Social Work or related field at time of appointment.

Candidates should apply via http://aufacultypositions.peopleadmin.com/postings/2806. Review of applications will begin May 1, 2018 and continue until the position is filled.

Candidates selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time appointment is scheduled to begin and continue working legally for the proposed term of employment; excellent communication skills required.

Auburn University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. It is our policy to provide equal employment opportunities for all individuals without regard to race, sex, religion, color, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other classification protected by applicable law.