Tenure Track Faculty Position
Assistant Professor/Associate Professor/Professor

The College of Social Work at the University of South Carolina invites applications for one or more tenure track faculty positions in social work at the rank of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, or Professor. Candidates with a research focus on child welfare are especially encouraged to apply. We seek applicants who can contribute to the College’s mission to advance the health and social well-being of vulnerable populations through transdisciplinary, community-engaged teaching, research, and service.

Qualifications: The position requires a doctoral degree, though ABDs may be considered with evidence that the doctoral degree will be completed by the beginning date of employment. The successful candidate will demonstrate potential for excellence in teaching and a strong capacity for research productivity and scholarly impact.

Compensation: Salary is highly competitive, and the University of South Carolina offers a robust benefits package described at: http://www.sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/human_resources/benefits/index.php

How to Apply: Applicants should submit electronically a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and a list of three references to: http://uscjobs.sc.edu/postings/35707. Inquiries about this position may be made to Dr. Teri Browne, Search Committee Chair at: browne@sc.edu or by phone at (803) 777-5298.

The University of South Carolina is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
