University of Central Florida
School of Social Work
Instructor or Lecturer, Social Work Online MSW
Position Number 41573

Administrative title: No Administrative Function
Job Description: The School of Social Work at the University of Central Florida (UCF) invites applications for a twelve-month instructor or lecturer position to begin in April 2018.

The position reports directly to the online M.S.W. coordinator. The position is full-time and contingent upon availability of funds. The responsibilities of this position include, but are not limited to, placement of students in the field setting, development of new field sites throughout the geographic areas in which students are placed, teaching field seminar and monitoring the quality of field education for the online M.S.W. track. This position works closely with the field education office to ensure continuity of program track delivery and adherence to CSWE standards for the online M.S.W. track. The position includes teaching online courses. In addition to these activities, this position is also expected to participate in committee work as assigned within the School of Social Work and the college. Salary is contingent upon experience and qualifications.

Housed within the College of Health and Public Affairs, the UCF School of Social Work offers a bachelor's degree in Social Work, a master's degree in Social Work, and a Social Work track in the interdisciplinary Public Affairs Ph.D. program. For more information regarding the School of Social Work at UCF, visit our website at https://www.cohpa.ucf.edu/socialwork/.

Founded in 1963, UCF has enjoyed phenomenal growth in the years since and is one of the largest universities in the nation with more than 66,000 undergraduate and graduate students. Located in Orlando, FL, UCF has thirteen (13) colleges with thirty (30) doctoral programs and was identified as one of the top 5 "Schools to Watch" by U.S. News & World Report. Additionally, it was named "Curricular Engagement and Outreach Partnership University" by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. Faculty at UCF enjoy the region’s mild climate, natural beauty, area attractions and nearby beaches.

This position is among those that will be based at UCF Downtown when the campus opens in fall 2019. Located in downtown Orlando, the new campus will be home to 7,700 UCF and Valencia College students to study degree programs that align with emerging industries, and is within walking distance of jobs and internships. The candidate selected for the position will have the opportunity to take part in shaping an innovative, 21st-century learning environment. For more information, visit https://www.ucf.edu/downtown/.
