BOSTON COLLEGE LAW SCHOOL seeks a full-time faculty member to provide clinical social work consulting, supervise masters’ level social work students in its clinical programs, advise joint J.D./M.S.W. students, and teach courses related to law and social work. The successful applicant will have a Ph.D. in social work or a J.D./M.S.W. and experience supervising clinical students and working in interdisciplinary settings. The applicant must be willing to become licensed as either an independent clinical social worker (preferred) or a clinical social worker in Massachusetts. Applicants should be interested in developing interdisciplinary experiential learning programming and will have opportunities in related research and scholarship, including policy work.

Boston College is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer. We strongly encourage women, minorities and others who would enrich the diversity of our academic community to apply. Boston College, a Jesuit, Catholic university, is located in Newton, Massachusetts, just outside of Boston. Interested applicants should contact: Dean Hashimoto, Chair, Clinical Appointments Committee at facultysocialworker@bc.edu or at Boston College Law School, 885 Centre Street, Newton, MA 02459.
