Long Island University, Brooklyn Campus
Department of Social Work
Full Time, Tenure-track Faculty Position (Open Rank)

Long Island University, Brooklyn Campus, (LIU Brooklyn) invites applications for a full time, tenure-track faculty position in the Department of Social Work at the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor.

LIU Brooklyn’s Department of Social Work includes an undergraduate (BASW) social work program with approximately 80 declared majors. The graduate (MSW) program is primarily an evening and weekend MSW program with approximately 170 MSW students. CSWE originally accredited the BASW program in 1999 and the MSW in 2003. The MSW program prepares graduates for Advanced Generalist Practice with concentrations in the following areas: Child and Family Welfare, Forensic Social Work, Gerontology, Not-for-Profit Management, and Substance Use and Addictive Behaviors. Although our MSW is a collaborative program with LIU’s Post Campus, this current faculty posting is specifically for a position located on the Brooklyn Campus.

The successful candidate will have the opportunity to teach across the curriculum in both our graduate and undergraduate programs. Experience in teaching theories of human behavior in the social environment, practice, policy and/or research is desired. The successful candidate will need to be able to work with individuals and communities of diverse cultural backgrounds.

Requirements include a MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited college/university with two years postgraduate practice experience and a PhD/DSW in social work or a related field. Demonstrated teaching excellence at the college level and ability to conduct research and publish are also required. Applicants with experience in positions of leadership or an interest in developing academic leadership potential are encouraged to apply. Competitive salary commensurate with qualifications and experience.

About the University: LIU is a private university established in 1926. LIU Brooklyn offers over 195 academic programs serving approximately 8,600 students. It is one of the fastest growing and most ethnically-diverse campuses in the metropolitan area. Located in the heart of downtown Brooklyn, it is just one subway stop away from Manhattan.

Interested candidates should submit a letter of application that specifically addresses qualifications, a curriculum vitae, and contact information for three references. This position can commence January 1, 2018 or September 1, 2018; preference will be given to candidates available for January. Review of applications will begin immediately.

Please address your application materials to:
Kathryn Krase, PhD, JD, MSW
Chair/Associate Professor
Co-chair, Search Committee
Long Island University, Department of Social Work
One University Plaza
Brooklyn, NY 11201-5372

Applications should be sent electronically in ONE pdf or Word document to Derek Brown, PhD, LMSW, Co-chair, Search Committee at Derek.Brown@liu.edu.

Long Island University is an AA/EEO employer committed to achieving a diverse workforce and to maintaining a community that welcomes and values a climate supporting equal opportunity and difference among its members.