Texas State School of Social Work invites applications for two full-time (9 month) academic year) faculty positions at the rank of assistant professor and associate professor. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate social work students on campus and online; conducting research, with the expectation to obtain external funding and publish in top tier journals; involving students in research; and participating in appropriate service activities. Collectively, this position includes teaching, scholarship, and service.

The school currently offers fully accredited B.S.W. and M.S.W. degrees (on-campus and online) and serves more than 800 students, the majority of whom are graduate students and students of color. Texas State University, a Hispanic-Serving Institution with Emerging Research status, is located in central Texas between two large metropolitan areas, Austin and San Antonio. In the Carnegie Classification, the university is an R2: Doctoral University – Higher Research Activity.

The mission of the school is to educate competent, ethical social workers who are prepared to serve as leaders for change in a dynamic, diverse society. The School has a strong commitment to diversity in all areas and encourages candidates from underrepresented groups to apply.

Required Qualifications:
- Earned Ph.D. in Social Work or Related Field.
- An active research program (associate professor) or experience conducting research (assistant professor) related to one or more of the following areas: trauma, mental health, substance abuse/addiction, human trafficking, food insecurity, aging, health, or immigration, including translational research.
- Evidence of recent publication in indexed and peer-reviewed journals.
- Evidence of grant writing experience and awards (associate professor).
- Evidence of external funding (associate professor).
- Experience teaching at the university level.
- Graduate and undergraduate student research mentoring (associate professor).

Preferred Qualifications:
- Professional and/or post-doctoral experience in social work or related field research.
- Grant writing experience (assistant professor).
- Evidence of external funding (associate professor).
- Graduate and undergraduate student mentoring (assistant professor).
- Teaching and/or research awards.
- 2 years MSW Post Graduate Experience

To be eligible for hire at the associate professor rank, the candidate must meet the requirements for that rank as established by the school. The successful applicant will receive the appropriate rank and title based on university and school established standards.

Review of applications will begin November 24, 2017, and continue until the positions are filled. Candidates should applications and required material via: https://jobs.hr.txstate.edu/postings/20827

To ensure full consideration, please submit the following by November 24, 2017: a current vita, cover letter describing experience and fit with both the required and preferred aspects of the position and to which rank you are applying, two recent publications, and three letters of reference.

Selected candidates for interview will be required to provided official transcripts from all degree granting universities. Any questions pertaining to these positions should be directed to the Search Chair Dr. Scott Smith by email at ks58149@txstate.edu.