Join a Faculty with a Proven History of Commitment to Social Justice

TENURE-TRACK POSITIONS- AVAILABLE FALL 2020

The Howard University School of Social Work (HUSSW) is recruiting for two open rank tenure track positions. Applicants will be considered at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor. Priority consideration will be given to direct practice (clinical licensed) applicants.

Located in Washington, DC, our nation’s capital, HUSSW offers two MSW concentrations: Direct Practice and Community, Administration and Policy Practice. We offer specializations in criminal justice, health, mental health, family and child welfare, displaced populations and social gerontology. We also have three dual degrees options: MSW/MPH; MSW/MDIV & MSW/MBA. Additionally, the School offers a Ph.D. in social work with specialized interest areas.

HUSSW embraces faculty scholarship that focuses on social and economic injustice, social determinants of health, behavioral health, poverty, and disparities that impact quality of life, especially for African Americans and other historically oppressed populations.

Our school has been continuously accredited during our 85-year history. We are a highly ranked graduate/professional program at the university and currently ranked by the U.S. News and World Report as among the top 25 MSW programs in the country.

REQUIREMENTS
Earned doctorate in social work required and at least two years post-MSW practice experience preferred. We are also seeking applicants with excellent teaching evaluations, scholarship and research experience or demonstrated strong potential. As an Historically Black University, we are interested in applicants who will invest in teaching as well as research. Experience with distance education is also highly desirable. Applicants for associate professor rank must have had funded research.
TO APPLY
For priority consideration, please submit a letter of interest outlining research, practice and teaching experiences along with a curriculum vita and samples of scholarly work. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Priority consideration will be given to applications received by November 8. Preliminary zoom interviews will take place starting in November. Finalists will be scheduled for on-campus visit December/January. Please submit materials to:
