Position Title
Assistant Professor, Social Work

Hiring Unit
College of Arts and Sciences, Social Work Department

Job Description/Responsibilities
The Social Work Department at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor in Social Work. The duties involve teaching course work at both the BSW and MSW levels, research/scholarship, and service to the department, college and university. Ability to teach in a variety of curricular areas is important, particularly social work practice.

The mission of the Social Work Department is to promote the well-being of people and society and advance social and economic justice. SIUE’s programs are noted in the region for their unique use of a simulated lab clinical experience. Students participate in a mock clinical setting with hired actors that simulate actual experiences in the field, and complete their degree after extensive experience in an actual social work setting. For those with a bachelor’s degree, SIUE also offers an advanced standing program that allows the opportunity to gain a master’s in only one calendar year.

Both the BSW and MSW programs are accredited by the Council on Social Work Education’s Commission on Accreditation. Visit their website to learn more: https://www.siue.edu/artsandsciences/social-work/
