Applications are invited for two Assistant Professor tenure-track faculty positions beginning August 16, 2019. The School of Social Work (SSW) at Arizona State University is seeking to expand our expertise in one or more of the following areas: Child Welfare; Aging/Gerontology; Substance Use; Social Policy; Organizations/Communities, Health and Behavioral Health; Native American scholarship, and Global Social Work Practice. SSW seeks colleagues whose innovative ideas and research agenda support our mission of educating BSW, MSW and PhD students. SSW and Arizona State University are committed to enhancing the diversity of faculty and staff. As such, we especially encourage people from historically underrepresented populations to apply. For more information about the School of Social Work; Watts College of Public Service and Community Solutions and Arizona State University, please visit https://socialwork.asu.edu/ https://publicservice.asu.edu/ and https://www.asu.edu/.

The School of Social Work is a community of scholar teachers who conduct a range of research with diverse populations across the life cycle. The School's curriculum, research, and community partnerships emphasize social and economic justice, along with an understanding of and respect for social, political, and cultural diversity. SSW provides a collegial and supportive environment that fosters interdisciplinary research. The faculty at SSW engages in major collaborative projects locally, nationally, and internationally. In addition, the Phoenix metropolitan area, State of Arizona, and the Southwest Region affords excellent opportunities for interdisciplinary research addressing a variety of populations.

Required Qualifications
- Earned doctorate in social work or in a related field by August 16, 2019.

Desired Qualifications
- MSW degree preferred
- Two or more years of post-MSW practice experience is preferred
- Demonstrate a developing research agenda
- Potential for excellence in teaching across the BSW, MSW, and PhD curriculum
- Demonstrate a commitment to research, scholarly publication, and preparation of research proposals for external funding

Job Responsibilities
- Teach undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral courses in person, online and hybrid
- Conduct research, pursue external funding
- Service contributions to the school, college, university & community

Application Procedure
To apply, please visit https://publicservice.asu.edu/content/jobs and upload your application materials which include the following:
- Curriculum vitae
- Personal statement that illustrates your interests and expertise in teaching and research
- Two samples of written/published material in which the candidate contributed substantially to the writing and conceptualization of the manuscript
- Information for three professional references (name, position, title, e-mail address, phone number)

The first application deadline is November 25, 2018, 5:00 p.m., Arizona, and every two-weeks thereafter until the search is closed.

Questions or additional information contact: James Herbert Williams, PhD, Director and Arizona Centennial Professor of Social Welfare Services, School of Social Work, Arizona State University, James.Herbert1@asu.edu.
Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other basis protected by law. For a complete statement on ASU’s non-discrimination policies, please refer to: http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html and https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/