Indiana University School of Social Work
TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITIONS AVAILABLE
Indianapolis campus
IN-SOCW-SOCW17005

The Indiana University School of Social Work (IUSSW) invites applications for three (3) open-rank tenure-track faculty positions on the Indianapolis campus, specializing in any of the following areas: Health and Interprofessional Education; Children, Youth, and Families; or Mental Health and Addictions. These positions are ten-month appointments with responsibility for teaching, research, and service. Successful candidates will be expected to teach face-to-face and online across the BSW and MSW curricula as well as occasional classes in IU-partner campus locations. The anticipated start date is August 2018.

Essential qualifications include an earned doctorate in social work or a related field, an MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program, and at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Successful candidates should have a well-articulated research and publication agenda as well as demonstrated interest in seeking external grants to support scholarly activities. Candidates for the title of Associate or Full Professor must demonstrate a history of external grants and scholarly publications to merit appointment at this level.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The Indiana University School of Social Work, headquartered in Indianapolis, has a long and distinguished history that began in 1911. The IUSSW offers the BSW program, MSW program, and the PhD program in Social Work, along with the AS and BS programs in Labor Studies. The School has approximately 110 full-time faculty members on seven campuses and enrolls almost 1,900 students in its programs statewide.

To apply, interested persons should review the application requirements and submit their online application at: https://indiana.peopleadmin.com/postings/4709. Three letters of reference along with your curriculum vitae and a letter of interest are required. Transcripts will be required of individuals invited for an interview. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the positions are filled.

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or identity, marital status, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status.
The Indiana University School of Social Work invites applications for two (2) open-rank tenure-track faculty positions on the Indianapolis campus, for primary appointment with the MSW Direct online MSW program, while also having some responsibility for face-to-face teaching. These positions are ten-month appointments with responsibility for teaching, research, and service. Teaching in online programs requires that instructors maintain interaction standards of Indiana University and adhere to recognized principles of online course design. The anticipated start date is August 2018.

Essential qualifications include an earned doctorate in social work or a related field, and MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program, and at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Successful candidates should have a well-articulated research and publication agenda as well as demonstrated interest in seeking external grants to support scholarly activities. Candidates for the title of Associate or Full Professor must demonstrate a history of external grants and scholarly publications to merit appointments at this level. Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate teaching experience at the MSW level and to applicants with experience in online delivery methods.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The Indiana University School of Social Work, headquartered in Indianapolis, has a long and distinguished history that began in 1911. The IUSSW offers the BSW program, MSW program, and the PhD program in Social Work, along with the AS and BS programs in Labor Studies. The School has approximately 110 full-time faculty members on seven campuses and enrolls over 1,800 students in its programs statewide.

To apply, interested persons should review the application requirements and submit their online application at https://indiana.peopleadmin.com/postings/4710. Three letters of reference along with your curriculum vitae and a letter of interest are required. Transcripts will be required of individuals invited for an interview. Applications will be reviewed beginning immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or identity, marital status, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status.