VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>POSITION TITLE</th>
<th>The University of Nevada, Las Vegas invites applications for Open Rank SN #18556</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PROFILE of the UNIVERSITY</td>
<td>UNLV is a doctoral-degree-granting institution of approximately 29,000 students and more than 3,000 faculty and staff that is classified by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as a research university with high research activity. UNLV offers a broad range of respected academic programs and is on a path to join the top tier of national public research universities. The university is committed to recruiting and retaining top students and faculty, educating the region's diversifying population and workforce, driving economic activity through increased research and community partnerships, and creating an academic health center for Southern Nevada that includes the launch of a new UNLV School of Medicine. UNLV is located on a 332-acre main campus and two satellite campuses in Southern Nevada. For more information, visit us on line at: http://www.unlv.edu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>COMMITMENT to DIVERSITY</td>
<td>The successful candidate will demonstrate support for diversity, equity and inclusiveness as well as participate in maintaining a respectful, positive work environment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ROLE of the POSITION</td>
<td>The UNLV School of Social Work invites nominations and applications for an open rank tenure-track faculty position. The School welcomes applications from all strong candidates, and is particularly interested in candidates whose substantive areas include clinical practice, trauma-informed research and/or practice, military social work, integrated behavioral health, child welfare, school social work, and child &amp; adolescent mental health. The candidate selected for this faculty position will be a strong scholar and teacher. Applicants at the rank of assistant professor must demonstrate strong research capacity and potential for external funding. Applicants at a higher rank must demonstrate distinguished scholarship and a record of extramural research funding. It is an exciting time to be at the UNLV School of Social Work. We have developed a new focus in trauma-informed care and policy that will be rolled out in three phases, 1) Developing a trauma-informed faculty, 2) a trauma-informed MSW concentration, and 3) a trauma treatment center. In addition, the School of Social Work just received a $5.68 million child welfare training grant for the state of Nevada and continues to provide integrated behavioral health training to our MSW students via the HRSA Behavioral Workforce Grant. The UNLV student body is one of the most diverse in the country as is our social work faculty. A Candidate who is hired will also be in on the development of new doctoral and online MSW programing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>QUALIFICATIONS</td>
<td>This position requires a Ph.D. in Social Work or cognate discipline (e.g., psychology, sociology, public health, neuroscience, and economics) and a MSW degree with a minimum of two years post-masters social work experience from a CSWE accredited college or university. It is preferred but not required that candidates will also possess the highest clinical state license in social work (e.g., LCSW, LISW) and be bilingual in Spanish and English.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SALARY RANGE</td>
<td>Salary competitive with those at similarly situated institutions. Position is contingent upon funding.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
APPLICATION DETAILS
Submit a letter of interest, a detailed resume listing qualifications and experience, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three professional references who may be contacted. Applicants should fully describe their qualifications and experience, with specific reference to each of the minimum and preferred qualifications because this is the information on which the initial review of materials will be based.

Although these positions will remain open until filled, review of candidates’ materials will begin on November 1, 2017 and best consideration will be gained for materials submitted prior to that date. Materials should be addressed to Dr. Kathleen Bergquist, Search Committee Chair, and are to be submitted via on-line application at https://hrsearch.unlv.edu. For assistance with UNLV’s on-line applicant portal, contact UNLV Employment Services at (702) 895-3504 or applicant.inquiry@unlv.edu.

REQUIRED EEO/AA STATEMENT
UNLV is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action educator and employer committed to achieving excellence through diversity. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to, among other things, race, color, religion, sex, age, creed, national origin, veteran status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression, or any other factor protected by anti-discrimination laws. The University of Nevada, Las Vegas employs only United States citizens and non-citizens lawfully authorized to work in the United States. Women, under-represented groups, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

- or -

EEO/AA/Vet/Disability Employer
VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION TITLE

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas invites applications for Assistant Professor. SN #18557

PROFILE of the UNIVERSITY

UNLV is a doctoral-degree-granting institution of approximately 29,000 students and more than 3,000 faculty and staff that is classified by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as a research university with high research activity. UNLV offers a broad range of respected academic programs and is on a path to join the top tier of national public research universities. The university is committed to recruiting and retaining top students and faculty, educating the region's diversifying population and workforce, driving economic activity through increased research and community partnerships, and creating an academic health center for Southern Nevada that includes the launch of a new UNLV School of Medicine. UNLV is located on a 332-acre main campus and two satellite campuses in Southern Nevada. For more information, visit us online at: http://www.unlv.edu

COMMITMENT to DIVERSITY

The successful candidate will demonstrate support for diversity, equity and inclusiveness as well as participate in maintaining a respectful, positive work environment.

ROLE of the POSITION

The UNLV School of Social Work invites nominations and applications for a tenure-track faculty position at the rank of assistant professor. The School welcomes applications from all strong candidates, and is particularly interested in candidates whose substantive areas include clinical practice, trauma-informed research and/or practice, military social work, integrated behavioral health, child welfare, school social work, and child & adolescent mental health. The candidates selected for these faculty positions will be strong scholars and teachers. Applicants at the rank of assistant professor must demonstrate strong research capacity and potential for external funding.

It is an exciting time to be at the UNLV School of Social Work. We have developed a new focus in trauma-informed care and policy that will be rolled out in three phases, 1) Developing a trauma-informed faculty, 2) a trauma-informed MSW concentration, and 3) a trauma treatment center. In addition, the School of Social Work just received a $5.68 million child welfare training grant for the state of Nevada and continues to provide integrated behavioral health training to our MSW students via the HRSA Behavioral Workforce Grant. The UNLV student body is one of the most diverse in the country as is our social work faculty. Candidates who are hired will also be in on the development of new doctoral and online MSW programing.

QUALIFICATIONS

This position requires a Ph.D. in Social Work or cognate discipline (e.g., psychology, sociology, public health, neuroscience, and economics) and a MSW degree with a minimum of two years post-masters social work experience from a CSWE accredited college or university. It is preferred but not required that candidates will also possess the highest clinical state license in social work (e.g., LCSW, LISW) and be bilingual in Spanish and English.

SALARY RANGE

Salary competitive with those at similarly situated institutions. Position is contingent upon funding.