University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, School of Social Work, Assistant Professor, position number 0083941, tenure track, full-time, 9-month, general funds to begin approximately August 2020, or as soon thereafter as possible. Applicants who are ABD will be accepted, however; degree requirements must be met by effective date of appointment.

Duties: Conduct research or undertake comparable scholarly activity, seek extramural funding, and publish in peer-reviewed journals; Supervise independent study research activities and participate on committees in charge of candidates for advanced degrees; Teach assigned courses across programs (graduate and undergraduate) and modalities; Serve as an academic advisor to students; Participate in curriculum development activities; Serve on department, school, and University committees; Render service to the profession and community which is relevant to the individual’s academic specialty; and perform related tasks as assigned.

Minimum qualifications: Doctorate from a college or university of recognized standing in social work or related field; Demonstrated scholarly achievements; Demonstrated ability as a teacher; Poise and good address for meeting and conferring with others.

Desirable qualifications: Scholarly work focused on social determinants of health, mental health or other issues that contribute to the mission of the School to create and disseminate new knowledge to increase social justice for the global enterprise with special attention to Native Hawaiian, other Pacific Islander, and/or Asian populations; Successful record of, or demonstrated potential for, funded grants; Strong commitment to, knowledge of, and/or experience with the University of Hawai‘i at Manoa mission and purpose of positioning the university as a leading indigenous-serving higher education institution; Demonstrated ability or interest in using instructional technology in teaching; Master’s degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited college or university of recognized standing in social work (or MSW equivalent); Two years post-MSW practice experience.

Pay range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

To apply: Applications must be submitted through the Career Opportunities at the University of Hawaii website. The ad can be found at https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/hawaiiedu/jobs/2605328/assistant-professor-in-social-work-position-0083941?pagetype=jobOpportunitiesJobs
Click on the "Apply" button on the top right corner of the screen to complete an application and attach required documents.
Applicants must submit the following:

- Cover letter indicating interest in the position and how the minimum and desirable qualifications are met.
- Curriculum vitae.
- Names and contact information (including e-mail address) of at least 3 professional references.
- One published article or other writing sample.
- Copies of educational transcripts with confidential information redacted (i.e. social security number, date of birth, etc.). Official transcripts are required upon hire.

NOTE: If you have not applied for a position before using NeoGov, you will need to create an account.

Inquiries: Theresa Kreif, Faculty Recruitment Committee Chair, 808-956-6120, kreif@hawaii.edu

Closing date: December 3, 2019

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution.