The University of Saint Joseph is seeking applications for a 9 month, full-time, tenure-track faculty position in our highly regarded Bachelors in Social Work Program (BSW) to begin in August 2020. Both the BSW and MSW programs are CSWE accredited and are housed in the Department of Social Work and Equitable Community Practice in the School of Interdisciplinary Health and Science.

The BSW program is a signature program of the University and was included in the first wave of CSWE accredited programs. It prepares social workers for generalist practice. Applicants for all three positions must be prepared to teach a variety of courses, including Human Behavior in the Social Environment and Social Work Practice courses. The MSW Program prepares social workers for community-based clinical practice in labor force shortage areas such as health and mental health; children and family services; and veterans' services. The MSW Program features an innovative model of field education in which university-employed clinical preceptors supervise groups of students in select organizations.

About the University of Saint Joseph
The University of Saint Joseph, founded by the Sisters of Mercy in the Catholic tradition, provides a rigorous liberal arts and professional education for a diverse student population in an inclusive environment that encourages strong ethical values, personal integrity, and a sense of responsibility to the needs of society.

The University has been recognized as a top national university in Connecticut by U.S. News & World Report’s Best College Rankings including being the #1 Connecticut University in “Top Performers on Social Mobility,” #2 Connecticut University in “Best Value Schools,” and #3 Connecticut University in “Best National Universities.”

Ideally situated midway between Boston and New York City, the beautiful 84-acre Olmsted-designed campus is one mile from West Hartford’s thriving downtown, and provides an array of cultural events, occasions for spiritual development, and fitness and recreational options. The University also has an active presence outside our campus, reaching into the surrounding community through internships, community service projects, new program and partnerships.

Position Description
We seek creative, innovative, and collaborative faculty member with a commitment to advancing social justice and work practice. Qualified applicants will demonstrate strong teaching and research skills; the ability to engage collaboratively with the department and community colleagues; experience in developing relationships and networks with culturally diverse communities; and the ability to forge partnerships with a variety of organizations and the ability to mentor and develop social work students.
Required Skills/Qualifications

Qualified applicants will have:
- An MSW and an earned doctorate in social work or closely related field. Applicants who are ABD will be considered.
- 2 or more years of post-MSW direct social work practice experience
- Higher education teaching experience
- Practice and research experience that demonstrates a commitment to social justice
- Record of engaged research and practice with culturally diverse communities

Application Procedure

Interested candidates should submit:
- Letter of interest addressing all qualifications for the position
- Current curriculum vitae
- Statement of teaching philosophy and research interests (two pages maximum)
- Unofficial transcripts
- Three current professional references with addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers
- ABD candidates, include a letter from thesis advisor stating anticipated date of completion

Please apply online at www.usj.edu/employment, select the position you are interested in, and on the right hand side and at the end of the job description you will see a window that says “Apply Now”.

You may add up to four additional files/documents after uploading your resume/CV; you will be directed to the upload page after you complete your contact information.

Note: If you encounter any issues in the system please contact the Hirezon helpdesk directly through this link and they can usually help address issues more specifically. They are located here https://usj.interviewexchange.com/iecreatemodifyticket.jsp

The University of Saint Joseph is building a culturally diverse faculty & staff, and strongly encourages applications from female and minority candidates.

Please visit our website to read more about our mission statement and learn more about our department and program.