University of Arkansas at Little Rock
Assistant Professor- Social Work / R97143
School of Social Work

The School of Social Work at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock invites applications for a tenure-track, nine (9) month academic position at the Assistant Professor (R97143) rank. The school particularly invites and encourages applications from members of underrepresented groups. Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications. We seek faculty who are committed to teaching, research, scholarly publication, and public service. This position is governed by state and federal laws, and agency/institution policy. Faculty members are provided with the opportunity to work in an urban university setting that values community-engaged scholarship and services. MidSouth, the School’s community service unit, provides faculty with an opportunity to join its long term partnership with family and children’s services providers across the entire state of Arkansas.

Minimum Qualifications: MSW and Doctorate degree in Social Work or a closely related field; ABD doctoral candidates will be considered (doctorate to be completed in the first year of employment); At least two years post-MSW practice experience.

Preferred Qualifications: Social work license (or eligibility for the same in the state of Arkansas); Prior teaching experience in higher education, with the ability to teach across the curriculum; On-line teaching experience.

Application materials must be submitted through the online application system. Additional information about this position and application requirements are available under the Jobs link on the Human Resources’ website at http://ualr.edu/humanresources/. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

This position is subject to a pre-employment criminal and financial history background check. A criminal conviction or arrest pending adjudication and/or adverse financial history alone shall not disqualify an applicant in the absence of a relationship to the requirements of the position. Background check information will be used in a confidential, non-discriminatory manner consistent with state and federal law.

The University of Arkansas at Little Rock is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and actively seeks the candidacy of minorities, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities. Under Arkansas law, all applications are subject to disclosure. Persons hired must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States.
