The Florida State University College of Social Work invites applications for two tenure-earning faculty positions at the Assistant Professor rank beginning in the Fall of 2018. The College educates students through its BSW, MSW (Clinical and Social Leadership concentrations) and research-based Ph.D. programs. The College is seeking candidates with research agendas that can contribute to collaborative research in the demonstrably fundable areas of translational and intervention research (i.e., behavioral health services, criminal justice, health services, and addiction research). Candidates must also demonstrate a commitment to teaching, research, external funding, and professional service.

Qualifications
Applicants must have a doctorate in social work or related field. ABD candidates who will complete doctorates prior to the position start date also will be considered. Preference will be given to candidates with a MSW degree.

University Information
Florida State is designated a “Doctoral/Research University-Extensive,” the top designation by the Carnegie Foundation, and is committed to diversity, technology, and providing faculty with a supportive research infrastructure. Florida State University is located in Tallahassee, Florida’s award-winning capital city. Florida State University and the College of Social Work offer a competitive salary and benefits package commensurate with experience. The College of Social Work is a Top 25 US News and World Report public program that also offers a collegial atmosphere that is dedicated to maintaining a diverse faculty as well as promoting rigorous scholarship and delivering high quality instruction. Members of minority groups, Spanish-speaking persons, women, and individuals with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. The Florida State University (FSU) subscribes to equal opportunity and pluralism and complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act. All eligible candidates are, therefore, invited to apply for position vacancies as appropriate. Florida State University is a public records agency pursuant to Chapter 119, Florida Statutes.

How to Apply
Qualified applicants should submit an electronic application, cover letter, curriculum vitae, and the names of three references to https://jobs.omni.fsu.edu. Applications will be accepted until December 1, 2017, though early applications are encouraged, as applications will be reviewed as received. Initial interviews will be conducted during the CSWE APM.
